

DURHAM, NH

I scream! You scream! We all scream for ice cream! Located on the University of New Hampshire campus, the Durham depot houses a waiting room and the famous Dairy Bar cafe, known for its unique flavors of ice cream. Durham is a charming university town, with Main Street running from downtown right through the heart of campus. Many townspeople cheer on the school's hockey team, considered one of the best in the country, enjoy live shows and music at the performing arts center, and browse the salons and traveling exhibitions of the university's art gallery.
